8.4 During an investigation, no documentation or information related to the matter under investigation will be placed in the staff members' personnel file or released publicly unless required by law. If the investigation does not result in disciplinary action, no documentation will be placed in the staff member's personnel file.

8.5 Any actions, other than dismissal, taken by the Administration as a result of such an investigation may be grieved under Article 10 (GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE) if the action is alleged to constitute a violation of this Agreement.

8.6 The parties acknowledge the need for expeditious investigations and agree to cooperate in achieving that goal.

Article 9. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

9.1 The Federation and the College agree that the primary purpose of discipline is to correct unsatisfactory performance and/or misconduct that is below acceptable standards, or contrary to the college's legitimate interests, in a constructive manner that promotes employee responsibility. Progressive discipline will not be utilized when management determines that an employee's action(s) are so egregious that such an approach is inappropriate.

9.1.1 An employee may be discharged, suspended without pay, or terminated only for good and just cause.

9.2 Progressive discipline shall be used whenever appropriate. Progressive discipline starts with the least severe discipline and progresses to more severe discipline depending on the circumstances. There are instances when a disciplinary action, including discharge, is appropriate without first having imposed a less severe form of discipline. There are also instances when steps in progressive discipline may be omitted. Examples of the least severe discipline consist of verbal and written warnings. More severe disciplines consist of written reprimands, suspensions and terminations.

9.3 A staff member shall be entitled to Federation representation at any meeting called to deliver a written warning, administer a letter of reprimand or more severe disciplinary action.

9.4 Each case of inadequate work performance or misconduct is judged individually, and the employee's supervisor or the appropriate dean or director, in consultation with the Human Resources Department, shall determine the discipline. In any instance in which a dean or director believes suspension without pay or discharge may be warranted, the dean or director, in consultation with the appropriate vice president and with the approval from the Director of Human Resources, may initially place the employee on administrative leave with pay pending further investigation.

9.5 Progressive discipline is designed to allow an employee a reasonable opportunity to become aware of and to meet the requirements of the job, comply with College policies, procedures, practices, and regulations, and allow the employee an opportunity to improve performance and/or conduct. The following describes actions used in progressive discipline:

9.5.1 Verbal warning. An employee is issued a verbal warning for minor infractions or to correct minor faults in an employee's job performance. Verbal warnings are issued during a private conference between the supervisor and the employee where the supervisor explains the problem and recommends a process the employee must accomplish to return to satisfactory status.

9.5.2 Letter of reprimand. Should contain the following information: a description of the specific problem or offense, the most recent incident and when it occurred, previous unsatisfactory behavior or performance related to the reprimand, and a statement that further unsatisfactory behavior or performance may result in further disciplinary action. The written reprimand is issued and discussed with the employee in private conference with the supervisor and must have been discussed with the employee previously. A copy of the written reprimand will be given to the employee and a copy placed in the employee's official personnel file. The written reprimand will also specify a review period, if appropriate, in which the employee's behavior or performance will be reviewed. The length of the review period will be no longer than one year.

If performance or behavior does not improve, one of the following actions may occur:

- 9.5.3 Demotion - a demotion is a formal involuntary downward change, for disciplinary reasons with a deduction in pay.
- 9.5.4 Suspension - a suspension is a temporary involuntary separation of employment, without pay, for performance or conduct that has not been satisfactorily corrected through the use of oral and written warnings. Suspension may also be used for misconduct or serious violation of policy. Suspensions range from one (1) workday to thirty (30) workday, depending on the seriousness of the problem.
- 9.5.5 Discharge - a discharge is a permanent involuntary separation of employment from the College for disciplinary reasons. An employee may be discharged without prior progressive discipline when warranted by the seriousness of the offense. Representative examples of infractions which may lead to disciplinary action, including Discharge (not limited to these examples):

- Violation of college policies;
- Violation of state or federal law;
- Threatening behavior;
- Leaving the work site without permission during working hours;
- Gambling during work hours or while using College resources;

- Unauthorized use or misuse of College property or records;
- Substandard work performance;
- Unsatisfactory attendance or tardiness;
- Misuse of work time while on duty, but not limited to misuse of rest periods, performing personal work, hobbies or personal recreational activities during work time, etc.;
- Failure to follow safety rules;
- Use of obscene language;
- Moving traffic violations while operating a College vehicle;
- Smoking in non-designated areas of College facilities;
- Engaging in prohibited political activities during work hours or while using College resources.

Representative examples of infractions of such a serious nature that the first occurrence may result in immediate discharge includes, but is not limited to:

- Unlawful use of and/or possession of controlled substances while on College premises;
- Drinking alcohol or being under the influence of alcohol on college premises;
- Conduct that constitutes a violation of criminal law on campus or off-campus where such conduct seriously threatens the reputation or educational mission of the College or the health or safety of any member of the College community. On a case-by-case basis, the College may conduct its own employment investigation and disciplinary proceedings irrespective of any actions taken by law enforcement;
- Willful damage or destruction of college records or property or another employee/student's property;
- Acts of physical violence, fighting, threatening or coercing anyone on college premises;

Suspension, demotion or dismissal require the approval of the Dean or Director, appropriate Vice - President and the Director of Human Resources.

9.6.2 Pay Status

Employees will normally remain at work pending the issuance of a Notice of Final Action. However, a Dean/Director may, with the approval of Human Resources, place an employee on administrative leave with pay pending completion of the investigative or disciplinary process

9.6.3 Notice Requirements

Notices shall be in writing and will normally be served in person by the immediate supervisor, if possible. At the time of service, the employee shall be asked to sign acknowledgement of receipt. If the employee declines, the supervisor shall note on the letter itself for record purposes. If the notice cannot be presented personally, the letter may be sent certified mail with a return receipt requested. The notice must be properly stamped and addressed to the last address provided by the employee; Service of the notice is complete when the notice is deposited with the United States Postal Service.

9.6.4 Notice of Contemplated Action (NCA)

To initiate a suspension, demotion or discharge of a non-probationary regular or term employee, the dean/director will contact the Director of Human Resources and the appropriate Vice-President. Human Resources will assist in the drafting of the NCA, gathering required documentation and will coordinate a time to meet with the supervisor and employee to present the Notice of contemplated Action. The notice of contemplated action must include the following:

Specify the contemplated action;

Specify the basis for a determination that just cause exists to suspend, demote or discharge the employee;

Indicate which policies the employee has violated;

Any extension of time must be in writing and agreed upon by both the employee and the Department of Human Resources. Oral response meetings will include a member of the Human Resources Department, and at the employee's request, an employee shall be entitled to Federation representation.

When the notice of contemplated action is served by mail, the employee shall have three (3) additional calendar days in which to submit a written response or submit a request to present an oral response.

The purpose of the written or oral response is not to provide an evidentiary hearing but is an opportunity for the employee to respond to the charges against him or her.

9.6.6 Final Notice of Disciplinary Action

If an employee submits a written response or presents an oral response, the Dean/Director will take the response into consideration. The Dean/Director, after consultation with the Human Resources Department, will decide on the final action to be taken, whether or not the employee has responded to the NCA. The final disciplinary action, signed by the Dean/Director shall be issued no later than ten (10) working days from the date of receipt of the written response, the oral response or within ten (10) working days following the expiration of the response period. The Notice of Final action should include the following:

State the final discipline to be taken, which may be upholding the contemplated action, a lesser form of discipline than contemplated, or no disciplinary action.

Notice should contain the basis for a determination of just cause for the suspension, demotion or dismissal.

If no settlement is reached, the President, or the designated representative, shall give a written answer within ten (10) workdays following such meeting.

10.8 Arbitration

- a. If both the grievant and the Federation are not satisfied with the President's written disposition, the Federation may appeal the grievance to arbitration by submitting a written

33.2 Eligibility

- a. Only staff members who have been employed for one academic year may be eligible to receive sick leave donations.
- b. Only staff members who have a minimum of eighty (80) hours of accumulated sick leave may donate solicited sick leave.
- c. Application for the solicitation of sick leave donations shall not be approved until the staff member has less than eighty (80) hours remaining of sick leave, and is expected to exhaust their balance based on the information provided in their Medical Certification Form.
- d. The maximum sick leave that a staff member may request at any one time is forty (40) days (280 hours) based on a seven-hour day.
- e. To be eligible for donated sick leave, a staff member must demonstrate that they are experiencing a catastrophic situation. Such injury or illness often makes exceptional demands on patients, caregivers, families, and healthcare resources. In general, an illness or injury that results in a medical condition that a health care provider has certified is likely to result in a loss of 30 or more workdays.

33.3 Application for Sick Leave Donations

- a. Northern New Mexico College has a standing committee to review applications to solicit sick leave donations and to make a determination to either approve or disapprove a request. This standing committee is comprised of the Human Resources Office (who will serve as chair), a representative of the Union, and the Director of the Department where the staff member who is requesting leave is employed.

- e. If the request for solicitation of additional sick leave is approved, the committee shall notify the employee of the decision in writing and indicate the total amount of sick leave hours which were approved. If the request for additional sick leave is disapproved, the committee shall notify the employee in writing of the reason(s) for the disapproval. The decision of the committee is final, but the employee may reapply for reconsideration if they can provide any new information or circumstances for the committee's consideration.
- f. Upon approval for solicitation of sick leave donations, the Human Resources Office shall broadcast an email to all eligible college employees soliciting the donation of sick leave. No personal identifying information, or any information about the application will be included in the communication from the Human Resources Office.
- g. If the solicitation for sick leave donations does not cover the amount of additional sick leave awarded by the committee, the staff member shall only receive the amount donated.
- h. A staff member who receives donated sick leave must exhaust all of their own leave, of any kind, prior to using any donated sick leave.
- i. If donated sick leave is not utilized, the donated sick leave shall be returned to the staff member who made the donation

The Federation and its members shall not cause, instigate or engage in a public employee lockout.

Article 35. NEGOTIATING PROCEDURES

35.1 Negotiations for a successor agreement may be initiated when either party submits a notice to the opposite party requesting the commencement of negotiations. 35.8 In the event the parties fail to reach agreement prior to the expiration date of this Agreement, they may seek mediation assistance from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS).

35.9 Budget information shall be shared by the College.

Article 36. AGREEMENT COPIES

36.1 The parties shall print their own copies of this Agreement.

36.2 This agreement shall be posted on the College's website.

Article 37. COMPLETE AGREEMENT

37.1 The parties agree that this is the complete and only agreement between the parties. All other provisions not affected by the illegal provision shall remain in full force and effect. The provision determined to be contrary to law shall be renegotiated by the parties provided either party submits a request to reopen negotiations no later than thirty (30) days after the parties knew or reasonably should have known that the provision was contrary to law.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT AND NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

1. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Northern New Mexico College is committed to providing a working and learning environment that provides equal opportunity to all current and prospective employees. Current and prospective employees will be considered for employment, promotions, assignment of duties, training, compensation and benefits, discipline and discharge, and other job opportunities on the basis of merit, and as otherwise required by law. In accordance with federal and state law, it is the policy of the College to prohibit unlawful discrimination and harassment against employees or applicants for employment on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, age, physical or mental disability or handicap, serious medical condition, spousal affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or any other basis prohibited by applicable law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §2000e and the New Mexico Human Rights Act, 1978 NMSA §§ 28-1-1 through 28-1-15. Any applicant or employee who feels that he or she has been discriminated against or harassed should report the incident to Human Resources, a supervisor, or security.

1.1 AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) AND REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

To ensure equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, the College will make reasonable accommodations for the known disability of an otherwise qualified individual, unless undue hardship on the operation of the business would result. Employees who may require a reasonable accommodation should contact Human Resources. It is the policy of the College to prohibit unlawful discrimination and to provide reasonable accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12010, et seq.

1.2 RELIGIOUS AND TRIBAL FEAST DAY REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Excused absences for observance of religious holidays, including recognized New Mexico Tribal or Pueblo feast days, are permitted for employees. Requests to be away from work to participate in such observances should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the proposed absence. Planned absences for such requests may be taken as either paid vacation leave, if applicable, leave without pay, or with equivalent time worked at a time and manner agreed upon by the employee and the responsible Supervisor, Director, or Vice President. Responsible Supervisors, Directors, or Vice Presidents may make reasonable accommodations for an employee's time away from work for this purpose to the extent practical in the consideration of education, operational, and critical needs of the College.

No employee shall discriminate against any employee or other individual because of individual's religious belief or practice or any absence thereof. A refusal to accommodate is justified only when undue hardship to the College would result from each alternative of reasonable accommodation.

1.3 PREGNANCY DISCRIMINATION ACT

Pregnant employees are protected from discrimination based on current pregnancy, past pregnancy, and potential pregnancy. Northern New Mexico College provides women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions with the same benefits of employment (such as light duty, alternative assignments, disability leave, unpaid leave, and medical clearance procedures) as other applicants or employees who are similar in their ability or inability to work. The American Disabilities Act (ADA) also covers pregnant employees who are regarded as having disabilities.

1.4 NURSING MOTHERS

Northern New Mexico College recognizes the health, family, and societal benefits of breastfeeding children. It supports all students and employees who choose to continue breastfeeding their children after they return to school or work, whether they be birth mothers, non-birth mothers, or transgender parents. The decision to continue to breastfeed when returning to school or work often depends upon the availability of a suitable place to pump or nurse and the time to do it. For these reasons, and in order to comply with federal and state law (FLSA), 29 USC § 207(r)(1)-(4) and (NMSA 1978, § 28- 20-2), the College provides lactation rooms and reasonable break periods for breastfeeding. For employees, these break periods are considered paid time. The Second New Mexico Statute, NMSA 1978, § 28-20-1 (“Right to breastfeed”), provides that “A mother may breastfeed her child in any location, public or private, where the mother is otherwise authorized to be present.”

1.5 HARASSMENT AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Sexual and other unlawful harassment is a violation of Title VII and Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as well as many state laws. Harassment based on a characteristic protected by law, such as race, color, ancestry, national origin, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or other characteristic protected by state or federal law, is prohibited.

It is the College’s policy to provide a work environment free of sexual and other harassment. To that end, harassment of Northern New Mexico College employees by management, supervisors, coworkers, or nonemployees who are in the workplace is prohibited. The College will take all steps necessary to prevent and eliminate unlawful harassment.

“Unlawful harassment” is conduct that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; has the purpose or effect of substantially and unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities because of the individual's membership in a protected class. Unlawful harassment includes, but is not limited to, slurs; jokes; pranks; innuendo; comments; written or graphic material; stereotyping; or other threatening, hostile, or intimidating acts based on race, color, ancestry, national origin, gender, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or other characteristic protected by state or federal law.

“Sexual harassment” is generally defined under both state and federal law as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where submission to or rejection of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of any individual’s employment or as a basis for employment decisions; or such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment. Other sexually oriented conduct, whether intended or not, that is unwelcome and has the effect of creating a work environment that is hostile, offensive, intimidating, or humiliating to workers may also constitute sexual harassment. While it is not possible to list all those additional circumstances that may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that, if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment depending on the totality of the circumstances, including the severity of the conduct and its persistence and pervasiveness:

- Unwanted sexual advances, whether they involve physical touching or not;
- Sexual, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one’s sex life, comments about an individual’s body, comments about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess;
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or cartoons;
- Unwelcome physical contact, leering, whistling, brushing up against the body, sexual gestures, or suggestive or insulting comments;
- Inquiries into one's sexual experiences; and
- Discussion of one's sexual activities.

Quid pro quo sexual harassment occurs when a job benefit is directly tied to an employee submitting to unwelcome sexual advances. For example, a supervisor promises an employee a raise if she will go out on a date with him, or tells an employee she will be fired if she doesn't sleep with him.

Only individuals with supervisory authority over a worker can engage in quid pro quo harassment, since it requires the harasser to have the authority to grant or withhold job benefits.

The Title IX Coordinator has been designated responsibility for coordinating Northern New Mexico College's efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under applicable laws prohibiting discrimination and harassment, including of Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Director of Human Resources has been designated responsibility for coordinating Northern New Mexico College's efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under applicable laws prohibiting discrimination and harassment associated with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

A Title VII complaint shall be filed in with the Human Resources Office and will follow the procedures and timelines of either the New Mexico Human Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunities Commission, as applicable.

A Title IX complaint shall be filed in accordance with Title IX Grievance Policy 1320 which can be obtained from the Northern New Mexico College website or directly from its Title IX Coordinator.

1.6 REPORTING MISCONDUCT COVERED BY THIS POLICY

Northern New Mexico College employees and individuals associated with the College, acting in good faith, should report any observed misconduct, whether suspected or apparent. Misconduct is any activity performed by a Northern New Mexico College employee that violates state and/or federal laws or regulations, local ordinances, or College policies. Employees are to maintain the highest standards of personal and professional ethics as they conduct business on behalf of the College.

Northern New Mexico College is committed to conducting an initial review and continuing with a thorough investigation into allegations of misconduct where warranted, while protecting the rights of all involved. Misconduct should be reported as soon as reasonably possible, preferably within thirty (30) days from the time the employee becomes aware of the observed, suspected, or apparent misconduct. Report the conduct to your supervisor. If, however, there is reason to believe the supervisor may be involved in the misconduct, report the conduct to the department responsible for dealing with the conduct in question. Such offices could include the Office of Human Resources, the Office of Title IX Coordinator, etc.

1.7 RETALIATION NOT TOLERATED

Retaliation is not tolerated by Northern New Mexico College and will be promptly investigated. Retaliation is any adverse action taken against an employee because that employee reported suspected misconduct. Any employee who interferes with, tries to interfere with, or retaliates against the rights of another employee for reporting suspected misconduct or cooperating in an investigation is subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Northern New Mexico College is committed to protecting employees who report suspected misconduct in accordance with the Whistleblower Protection Act (Whistleblower Protection Act - § 10-16C-1. - N.M. Stat. Ann. § 10- 16C-1 et seq. (2012)). Where possible, confidentiality will be maintained, however, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law, and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of defense.

It is important to protect individuals from false, unsubstantiated, or inaccurate accusations. An employee who knowingly provides false information or knowingly makes a false report of suspected misconduct or a subsequent false report of retaliation, or who knowingly provides false answers or information in response to an ongoing investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
